On November 15, 2011, I met with Adam Woods in my office. Woods admitted he had sexual intercourse on one occasion with a female resident at Country Life Care Facility in mid - September, 2011. Woods admitted that he had lied to his parole officer about having sex with this female. Woods was not in an approved relationship with this female, and had specifically been told not to be sexual with her. I asked Woods how many times he had been told not to be sexual with this female by his parole officer and treatment coordinator, and he estimated about 50 times. This violates condition 41 of Woods' SOTP contract

On September 12, 2011, I spoke with Adam Woods by telephone. Woods admitted that he drank a Budweiser beer with his father on September 9, 2011 while parked in the parking lot of Kwik Shop in Oskaloosa, Iowa. Woods reported his father knew he was drinking the beer and told Woods that "no one will find out about it". Woods resides at Country Life Care Facility in Mahaska County, and had been given permission to go with his father from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm to go and eat at Subway when this violation occurred.

On November 16, 2010, Woods provided a sample of his urine for chemical testing. This test was negative for amphetamines, THC and cocaine. I asked Woods when the last time he smoked marijuana was, and he replied about 6 months ago. I asked Woods if he was on supervision at that time, and he replied he was.
